

Ascend!

October 27, 2020

"I'm taking you to some place new in the spirit realm. Ascend, like never before. Come up higher than ever before. You are right at the door. Come in, come higher. Open up your eyes and see all that I have for you. You are right at the door. You've let distraction and hindrance carry you away. Turn around, come back, come in. Enter in, enter in to all that I have for you. Now, the time is now. You are an atmosphere shaker. Realize what I've been teaching you it has not been for nought. The time is now. Go through the door. Make waves in the spirit realm, a shaking. Replace sadness for joy. Move to a new place, a place of restoration, of peace, of gladness. The time is now, what are you waiting for? No more distractions, no more delay... The time is now. Grab on, hold on to all that I have for you. There's going to be a shaking, greater, across the land. It's coming, the likes you've never seen. It's time for renewal of faith, of peace, of hope, of destiny. The government has its military, militia, I have mine. It's not about benefits and social status or position. It's about my Eagles learning to fly, taking a new place in the spirit realm, a shifting, transition. Renewal of faith, of hope. It's bigger than you. Climb to the new place, ASCEND!"
