

Exposing the False Prophetic

February 2, 2021

There's a wind of change coming in the life of My people. It's a new day, a new time, new life is coming. Change, change for the good. Beware of the false, the counterfeit – seek what is good, holy, pure.

It's time to reveal, expose the false prophetic. Divination arouses the senses – false flattery speaks to the soul – It's a “feel good” message. But ask yourself: Is it real? Is it the true word of the Lord? Does it bear witness with you? Does it encourage, edify, lift up? Or does it run game on the individual with an ulterior motive to manipulate and control? To draw in the unassuming, suspecting nothing, hungry for the “word of the Lord”? My sheep suffer at the hands of these adulterers – save them. Show them the way out.
