

Rivers of My Glory

February 16, 2021

“Rivers of My Glory flow. Whatever it will touch, it will heal. Send it, send the Glory. Send it to the north, to the right and left. Strongholds will be broken.

Stampede – a stampede happens when cattle are let loose. There shall be a stampede for, of My Glory, a letting loose – a Glory stampede. The gates will open, transformation will happen. It’s happening soon, all over the East Gate. It’s coming – soon. Let it come. It’s wild, there will be no order, no rhyme or reason, like the letting loose of a floodgate. You can’t control it. It will go like water chooses it’s own path. The waters originate in the east and go east, west, to the north and south. You can’t control it. It’s coming – be prepared, get ready.”

I see a big ship on the water and then many ships around it.

“Ships of Glory, vessels who are hungry for more of Me. Ships are coming to the brightness, the rising of My Glory. Get ready, people of God, My people. It will prosper in the thing for which I send it. Prosperity will fall, get ready. Goodness will abound in the lives of My people. Cherish all I will do for you – don’t set it aside, lay it down. It’s coming. Treat it as special, everything I do for you. It’s not commonplace, it’s a reward from Heaven, a gift.

Be thankful and you will invite Heaven into your lives greater and greater for My Glory. Invite Me into your lives greater. Live truly for Me in every way and I will rain down blessings, pour out My favor as never before. Wait and see. Try me in this, says the Lord of hosts.”
