

You Will Spring Forth Speedily

February 9, 2021, 7:36am

The Lord spoke the word “intrepid” to me.
He then said, “Fear not. Be still and know that I am God.”

I looked up the word intrepid.

Intrepid:

Resolutely courageous; fearless. synonym: brave.

Not moved by danger; free from alarm; undaunted: as, an intrepid soldier.

Indicating or springing from courage

A word of encouragement for someone that might be feeling intimidated by the enemy.

“Do not be alarmed. Be brave. Do not look at what the enemy is trying to present to you. A whirlwind of commotion is just a distraction. God’s ways are higher. Come up higher. Stay grounded in me. What God has started, HE will finish! Trust Him with the vision. Trust Him with provision. His ways are exceptional. Unlimited resources are coming into your hands His way.

The Lord is marking your territory with His hand. His ways are higher. Don’t put your hands on what I’m doing, don’t self-promote. I will highlight your vision with my light. My light on your vision will draw provision. Rest in me. Am I not the light of the world and does not my light live in you? I will shine forth my light in hidden places. My light will push back the darkness and cause things to come forth that have been hidden. Darkness can’t hide when you yield to me completely.

Follow my leading. Yield to my heart. My Glory is in the light and my light is in the Glory. It has no measure, it’s boundless. I want to expand my Glory through you and as I do, I will bring you to the forefront and you will spring forth speedily.”
