"THE BATTLE IS SET IN ARRAY"

JEREMIAH, 50th CHAPTER

“Declare and publish and set up the standard of God, reveal and conceal cannot. The United States is taken, the false gods are confounded, the government is broken in pieces, the idols are confounded and the graven images are broken in pieces. For out of the north the Lord God sends war against her and will make the land barren and all shall depart and leave her vacant. In this day my people shall remove herself from the wickedness of this nation and travail with tears as they seek the Presence of the Lord. My people shall confess and declare the way to Zion with their faces set, and their hearts shall be joined to me in an everlasting covenant that shall not be forgotten. My people have been lost in times past concerning the true direction and path that I desired for them to be on. And because of the false shepherds that led them astray, they have wandered to and fro forgetting that I the Lord am their resting place. The enemy that found my children as they strayed from me has devoured them, and many that harmed, seduced, and placed my children in bondage, justified their actions and hid their wickedness against my people.

I say to my children remove yourselves from the wicked deceiving authority of this nation, and go forth out of the authority of the enemy’s camp, and separate yourselves from their very midst. For shortly I shall visit this nation and cause war to come against her, and I shall raise up a mighty army that shall cause this nation to also reap openly what she has sowed in secret. Because this nation rejoiced at wickedness, deceit, and destruction that came upon the innocent, and continued to grow fat and rich through greed, selfishness, and manipulation, I will also cause your nakedness to be revealed openly and you shall be greatly ashamed. The wrath of the Lord has been kindled against this nation, and many shall be greatly astonished at the great plagues that I shall send forth in your very midst. I shall spare not in the day of my judgment, for you have exalted and promoted your wickedness and sin against the Almighty God. I say to those who are mine, shout loudly and proclaim my Word, for the foundations of this wicked, sinful nation are now being shaken, and her walls shall fall down and great vengeance shall be upon the wickedness that you have promoted against others and done as well.

In the twinkling of an eye I will cut off your Prosperity, and shall cause your harvest to fail. Because of the oppressing sword that you as a nation have released upon many, that same sword shall now be released upon you. I will punish those who rule in the Government and High places, and their acts of Treason against me and my people shall come back upon them. A sound of great Battle and of great destruction shall be heard and felt throughout the land, and the hammer shall fall upon the wickedness of this nation and break it into pieces.

I have laid a trap for those who rule this oppressing nation, and they shall be taken in their own snares and caught unaware because you have striven against the Most High God. I have opened my armory against this nation and released against you the weapons of my indignation, and all shall know that this is the work of the Lord God of Hosts in your midst. Your borders shall be overrun with war and turmoil, and your storehouses in which you greatly trust shall be utterly destroyed, and nothing shall be left of them. For the day is come and the time of your visitation is at hand, and I the Lord shall set the battle in array. For those of you, my children, who remove yourselves from the wicked rule of the enemy in your midst, I THE ALMIGHTY GOD SHALL HIDE YOU UNDER THE SHADOW OF MY MIGHTY WINGS. I HAVE CALLED YOU UNTO MYSELF TO BE MY PEOPLE AND MY PEOPLE ONLY, AND I SHALL RULE OVER YOU WITH THE LOVE, NUTURE, AND COMPASSION OF A LOVING FATHER.

I am against the proud, haughty spirit that rules this very nation and I shall visit you in this day and time. The proud shall stumble and fall and none shall be able to raise them up, and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all those around him. Thus saith the Lord of Hosts, my children have been oppressed and held in captivity and their oppressors refused to let them go. But your Redeemer is strong, the Lord of Hosts is his name, and I will plead the cause of my people and give them rest and put to silence those who have oppressed them. I now release the sword of my judgment upon the wicked rulers, who oppress my people with lies and deceit. I send a sword upon the arm of the flesh in which you trust greatly, and they shall be dismayed. I send a sword upon your transportation systems, your economy, and your so-called wealth. I send a sword upon your treasures, and you shall be spoiled by my hand. A drought shall come upon your waters and they shall be dried up, for your nation has given itself to graven images and become obsessed with Idolatry. As I in times past overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbor cities around them, so shall I also do unto you. As you have released cruelty and no mercy toward others, that shall you also reap. As you have released anguish, distress, and despair toward others, that shall you also reap. As you have hid your hand of destruction behind others who carried out your will, you shall now reap others sending forth destruction against you, and hiding their hands. As my word goes forth out of the mouth of my Prophets, your hands shall wax feeble and anguish shall take hold of you.

Therefore hear you the counsel of the Almighty God, that I have taken against this nation and know that my purposes and plans shall be fulfilled. The whole earth shall know that my hand has been released against you and a great cry shall go forth throughout the land. For I the Most High God have not forsaken my people, but I move swiftly even now to confirm my Word with Signs and Wonders Following.

THUS SAITH THE ALMIGHTY GOD.
